FINAL STANDINGS FOR THE 2009 SCA SPOCO

Steve Dennis reigns supreme with 716 points

In what turned out to be a tighter than usual competition, Steve's lead held firm in the face of a veritable challenge from Iain Brogden, coming in second with 714 points. And Paul Thatcher's early lead of 688 points proved he had done enough to secure third place overall in the final analysis.

Thank you to everyone who supported the competition – hope you'll be back to do it all again next year – starting with the GS Stella sporting weekend of 6/7 February 2010.

Final Team Positions

The decisions by Nick Dwyer and Peter Baker to ride the Bognor hilly instead of their club hill climb reaped reward for the Wanderers, to give Messrs Winton, Dwyer and Baker the team prize.

Veteran Competition Result

With Mel and Geoff tying for first place last year it promised to be another close contest, but once Mel had completed the necessary qualifying events he was not to be beaten. Although the top spot proved elusive, a first on standard in the Bognor Hilly was enough for Geoff to pull ahead of Steve to secure second place.
