1st Lady - Emma Craddock, South Downs Bikes,
won a bottle of wine + Easter egg, value £6.

A fantastic afternoon, hottest Easter to date, 25+ degrees C, with the slightest drift from the south, giving a hint of help over the second 5 miles.
Several of our regulars did their quickest ride ever on this course.
As Peter Tadros said after, he realised if he did not do it then, he was not going to do it at all.
What a performance. He caught Stephen Morgan for 3 minutes at 6 miles on the way to taking 28 seconds off his own course record. Currently, my own opinion is that only 3 riders could beat this, being Alex Dowsett, Bradley Wiggins and Fabian Cancellara.
Congratulations to Emma Craddock to getting to within 38 seconds of the ladies' course record.

Grateful thanks to: our timekeepers, Mick Irons (Worthing Excelsior CC) and Jane Lade (Eastbourne Rovers CC), recorder, Graham Lade (Eastbourne Rovers CC), pusher-off, Adrian Jones (Central Sussex CC), marshals, Rupert Robin, +
Ken + Pearl Wells, + catering - Paul Thatcher's other half, Rachel.

Finally, "Chapeau" to my club's Jay Chisnall who, before being part of the winning team, removed the stubbornly fixed toilet seat in the ladies' lavatory with his junior hacksaw and replaced it, so putting us in the village good books.

Hopefully, in 2012, we will not have two open events on Easter Sunday diluting our field.
