Saturday 10 – Notes and Acknowledgements

It was an early, cold and misty start to the race; I can only apologise for the early start as we wanted to ensure the riders were well off the road before the traffic built up heading into Eastbourne for Airbourne. I think the cold heavy air effected the times somewhat but even so there were some very good rides.

Commiserations to Neil Couchman who was knocked off his bike when a driver pulled out in front of him from a left-hand junction, he went into the side of the car and over the bonnet. Fortunately Neil was unhurt and was able to ride back to the HQ only then to discover that his frame was cracked.

I was really pleased with the number of entries we had for an early morning 10 mile TT, 68 riders from 24 different clubs, and congratulations to the winners of the 26 prize awards which were spread over 15 different clubs.

The event couldn't be held without the help of my Rovers club mates, so many thanks to the following people:

Timekeeping	Jane & Graham Lade
Recording	Dave Dunbar
Pushing Off	Dave Cox
Marshals	Stuart Davis and Richard Thomas at the Boship roundabout
Photography	Bob Taylor
Refreshments	Sue Cox

Sunday 25 – Notes and Acknowledgements

It was a brand new and 'hard' course for the riders of today's event, and yes I have to put my hand up and admit it, it was all Ann's idea! It would have been all too easy to cancel the event when first hearing that road works would stop us racing on the Halland stretch of the A22, so that's when a new course had to be planned. Although being harder and a few minutes slower than the original course, the general consensus was it was a good days racing, but can we go back to the original course next year!

Congratulations to all of today's prize winners, on a tough course like this you deserve every penny. The prize fund for the two events was £820 and it has been great to see the fund spread throughout so many riders. Many thanks to all the marshals and helpers you really made the event a success.
