Congratulations to all prizewinners, a reasonable day albeit a bit damp underfoot for the early starters, which isn't great with over thirty roundabouts to navigate. Particular thanks to Debora Hurst, Kingston Phoenix who stood in for Jackie Dodd at virtually no notice and we wish Garry Dodd a speedy recovery after his accident the day before the event.

A mention must also go to Phil Farrelly, manager of Broadbridge Heath Village Centre, who opens up most weeks, sometimes on both Saturday and Sunday at an hour when most people, except Testers, would prefer to be in bed.

Thanks to you all for entering, see you at the Ten Mile on Saturday 14th May on the G10/57

Note – To those who are thinking of competing in the BAR. The Sussex CA 50, which is a counting event, is only one week after the SCCU 50, so if you wish to enter the Sussex 50 as a back up then you should enter before you ride the SCCU 50. Both are on the same course.
