Sporting 18 Time Trial

Sunday 15 February 2015

A cracking event to start the season off, with a large number of fast riders in the start sheet. The high quality field benefited from some fine weather with a slight temperature lift from recent weeks.

Chris McNamara of Pedal Heaven takes the honours with a 20 second gap over second place Rob Sharland of Paceline RT who had won the previous week's Kingston Wheelers Gil Jessop memorial. Both riders were slowed by a horse at one point, although that certainly didn't prevent them from recording very impressive times on this challenging course.

Rob did have the consolation of being part of Paceline RT's winning team effort.

Alice Lethbridge of gbcycles.co.uk takes the ladies prize.

Further down the field, veteran Pete Tadros on In Gear Quickvit Trainsharp – who was third in the Kingston Wheelers event – had to settle for 10th place after his seatpost snapped with two miles to go. He rode the remaining stretch of dual carriageway with the saddle clamped between his teeth.

Liam Maybank of Twickenham CC was the best veteran on standard.
