

The AXIOM TEAM Weekender

The results of a weekend of head banging up and down the A3 on the 13th and 14th June 2015 – Promoted for and on the behalf of Cycling Time Trials under their rules and regulations.

The Results Are In!

I hope you all had a good time at this year's Weekender. For the most part the weather was as ordered, with a slight breeze on Saturday and just a hint of moisture on Sunday to make things interesting! No sub 20's on this year's 10, but Adam Atkinson of 34 Nomads CC pushed it closest. Sunday saw Rob Sharland of Paceline RT beat the course record. Despite a slight drizzle, Rob beat Kevin Tye's previous course record by 17 seconds, becoming the first man under 49minutes!

Talking about records... I'm not sure if there's a record for the largest age gap in competitors, but with a 73 year age gap between our oldest and youngest competitors on Saturday, I think we may be fairly close!!! Well done to all - no matter how old!! Hope to see you all again next year! Tim

Bigup, nuff respect, list of thanks:

Before you get to the bit you really want to read (!!!), I'd really like to say thanks to all our volunteers: Our time keeping crew - Graham Edwards, Rita Ludford and Des Ludford. Joe who pushed you all off (well hopefully not!). The marshals and kitchen helpers Will, Helly, Pete, Luke, Tel, Tony, Sarah (and baby Imogen!), Colin, Len and Cathy who pointed you in the right directions, and served you hot drinks, cakes and bacon butties! Without you guys, this would not happen!

Finally, Many thanks to you all – I hope to see you all again next year. Tim (Event Sec.)
